2. The Dy Comm now requests sanction under Rule 8 (1)(c) of the Ind Election Rules for publishing the list of voters on the 25th 10 1913

3. The rule referred to by the Dy Comm states that if the list is not published two months prior to the 1st June, it shall be published at least two months before the date to be determined by the Govt.

Therefore the date that has to be determined now by Govt is not the date on which the list should be published, but the date two months before which the list shall be published. According to the Dy Comm's recommendation the date falls on the 25th Decr 1913, the term of the existing Council expiring by the 31st Decr 1913.

4. It is submitted that by adopting the 25th December 1913 there will be hardly time to hold the elections & to reconstitute the Municipal Council. The term of the existing Council is 31st Decr 1913.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that in view of the expiry of the term of the Municipal Councillors of Malavalli Municipality appointed under Government Notification No 140/Mil 52-53-25 dated 8.7.1910, a general election was held on the 18th instant. A statement stating the particulars required in para 4(d) of Government Proceedings No 5053-60/Mil 100-13-13 dated 1.11.1913 is appended in the margin.

2 It is reported by the Amildar that no nomination paper according to rules was received till the 17th instant and that only 7 applications were received that day. It is further reported that foreseeing this contingency a list containing all the names of candidates eligible for membership was got printed and used in place of envelopes containing the names of "nominees only". It appears that this deviation from the prescribed procedure was adopted to suit the local state of affairs.

3 I must here say that a number of applications
for

for membership was received by the Amildar or perhaps the Taluk Sheristadar, who on account of the Amildar's absence was in charge of the Taluk, had pointed out the informal nature of the applications there would have been ~~no~~ delay in presenting formal nomination papers.

4 A petition was received in the Office on the 21st instant from some of the inhabitants of Malavalli complaining against the procedure adopted by the Amildar in respect to nomination papers but nothing could be done as they should have applied to the District Judge under Section 220 of the Municipal Regulation.

5 At the special meeting held for the scrutiny of the votes a quorum could not be secured. It may be that the members kept away as a protest against the Amildar's action in the matter of nomination papers.

6 For these reasons, I am not satisfied that the Election has been promptly held. Further it will also be noticed that as shown in the margin of this letter, no gentleman has secured the votes of $\frac{1}{3}$ of the total number of persons entitled to vote as required in Rule 23(ii) of the Election Rules.

In these circumstances, I beg to recommend that all the non-official members may be appointed by nomination under section 10(b)(1) and 10(2) of the Municipal Regulation.

A statement showing the names of gentlemen recommended for nomination is herein enclosed.

I have the honor to be
